

Uncover problems, address them quickly and maintain a safe and ethical workplace

The investigation and remediation process for program administrators needs to be holistic and seamless, allowing multiple departments to collaborate and feed data into the system. With NAVEX One®, you can create a multi-tier program that enables your HR and legal teams a holistic way to follow through with actions to resolve them, sharing information and bringing in the right people when required.

