

Reduce third-party onboarding time and costs with an easy-to-use solution

In today's world of evolving sanctions and regulations, knowing exactly who you are doing business with has never been more complex or important. A time-consuming and repetitive onboarding process and a lack of oversight when vetting third parties can raise the risk of inadvertently engaging with a third party involved in or linked to sanctions and financial or environmental crime, resulting in penalties and even significant reputational damage.

- NAVEX One GRC Platform enables new or existing vendors to self-manage their profile and enter answers on an ad hoc basis, providing you the ability to communicate directly through RiskRate to provide feedback or request changes.
