

Create Company Policies with Volkov Law Group

Draft Policies with Confidence and Legal Soundness

Internal policies can be difficult to align with legal and industry standards and can result in serious consequences for an organisation if not responsibly managed. Organisations often need experts to help create and manage policies that meet regulations and help shape their culture.

Best-in-Class Policy Writing, Templates and Review

Volkov Law Group specialises in company policy-writing and supplies legal oversight for existing company policies so you can be rest assured that new and existing policies align with your company goals and compliance regulations. They can help tailor policies to your risk profile with legal soundness, providing an extra layer of protection for your organisation.

Volkov Law Group Policy Creation Services

Consultation Services	Consult with legal experts to determine what policies are necessary for your organisation
Policy Writing	Receive tailored policies that align with your organisational goals and promote compliance and ethical behaviour
Policy Review and Revision	Have your current policies reviewed and edited by experts to ensure policies are legally sound and drive company culture
Policy Templates	Draft new policies internally with confidence using legally vetted policy templates. Templates include five standard policies ideal for your organisation and needs.

Once policies are created and updated, utilise PolicyTech to seamlessly manage company policies and communicate them out to your workforce.

NAVEX PolicyTech combined with Volkov Law Group's policy services enable strong policy management programmes – reducing organisational risk and creating a stronger legal defense. For pricing and details about working with the Volkov Law Group, contact your NAVEX representative today.